We offer a cybersecurity platform for end-point protection across devices, users, and cloud applications, and other related services (“Solution”), in addition to our website located at centrecore.ai (“Website”) and its subdomains, which contains information about us, our technology, and information concerning our Solution, as well as demos and trials of our Solution (if and to the extent Company makes them available). The Website together with the Solution and related services, except if specifically, otherwise designated, shall be referred to herein as the “Services”.

By taking an action to indicate acceptance (such as clicking a checkbox or using the Services) or by using a Trial Service or Free Service, you agree to and accept the terms of these Terms. Your use of some or all features of the Solution may be subject to additional terms, which will be made available at the time of access or the applicable Customer’s subscription to or purchase of the applicable Solution features (collectively, “Additional Terms”). Any Additional Terms entered into between Company and User shall take precedence over conflicting provisions in these Terms.

The Company may revise these Terms at any time and at Company’s sole discretion. Any non-material changes to these Terms will become effective on the date the changes are posted. Any material changes to these Terms will be effective: (i) immediately if you are a new User, and (ii) if you are an existing User, upon the earlier of (a) thirty (30) days after such changes are made, which we will highlight to you via the “Last Updated” date or via the Services, or (b) your acceptance of the updated Terms.

In addition, Company may at any time, in its sole discretion, add or remove supported features and/or capabilities from the Solution.

1.3 Availability. The Services availability and functionality depend on various factors, such as communication networks, software, hardware, and Company's service providers and contractors. User acknowledges that the use and enabling (as applicable) of any such Third-Party Services will be subject to any terms which govern and/or apply to such Third-Party Services. You acknowledge that we are not responsible for the products and services provided by any Third-Party Services, and that Company is not the author or owner of any Third-Party Services and makes no warranties or representations, express or implied, as to the quality, capabilities, operations, performance, or suitability of Third-Party Services.
